Carter EZ

Entertainment furniture with no tool assembly

(Santa Fe Springs, CA) – August 31, 2007 - Elite Modern introduces its new entertainment center, the Carter EZ, designed by Nolen Niu. This entertainment center boasts “no tool” assembly in three easy steps. It is so simple, first, unfold both hinged frame legs, second, insert the wire management panel and third, place glass on shelves. It couldn't get any less complicated! It is a high quality product created from champagne plated steel, white oak veneer and tempered glass. It holds up to a 50" TV and has excellent wire management features.

The Carter EZ is a great entertainment piece for any modern style home due to its easy set up, functional design and its classy two tone color pallet of champagne and espresso.
